JUV. "RED DEVILS" WIN 2; LOSE 1

Trounce Brooks 5 - 0; defeat Gleichen 2 - 1; lose to Strathmore 6 - 5.

Lloyd Jackson's "Red Devils" started on a late season on Saturday at Brooks; and take their most formidable opponents Gleichen on Monday in Basasso. In these two games the team was tuned nicely and clicking as a team should; but on Wednesday they suffered a slight relapse and lost to Strathmore in a closely contested, high scoring game. The juveniles have been dishing up a good brand of hockey lately; the larger crowd, turning out to view the games show that interest in hockey in Basasso is being revived.

Basasso versus Brooks

In all the splendor of their new red and white outfits the "Devils" invaded the Brooks' stronghold on Saturday afternoon to shut out their opponents completely. "Gub" Johnson went out to stand no fooling.

Rusty Basassar and "Shaver" Smith, first string forwards, were the heavy scorers for Basasso, each scoring two goals. "Gub" Johnson rounded out the total by scoring unassisted.

The juveniles were a going concern, at no time was Maurer in much danger of being out. "Gub" Johnson set the scoring on a nice pass from "Sneak" Marquardt. Rusty Basassar came back strong after one of his typical solos to tie the score. Again Rusty scored on a pass from Rusty Stiles. "Gub" Johnson got the spirit of the game and also tallied the fourth corner, to tie Smith and Basassar a rest. Smith, for his second goal of the day, scored unassisted, the game ending 5-0 for Basasso.

Brooks: Goal, D. Kay; Def: A. Macintosh, E. Sarnes, Purvis, J. MacFarlane, C. Gibson, B. Baird, J. Kay, H. Hansen, B. Turlock.

Basasso versus Gleichen

On Monday night before the largest crowd in attendance, the "Red Devils" came here in two years. Basasso took a 2-1 victory after fighting all the way through 2 periods and 10 minutes overtime.

By defeating Gleichen we hear the boys are in a turkey dinner—page Mr. Roy Smith.

Ellis Angell, husky defenceman, was the bright light for the "Devils," scoring both goals for Basasso.

Play started off with a bang from the drop of the ball, both teams held out to win. Basasso forced the ball of play into Gleichen territory; their efforts resulting in a tally by Ellis Angell from "Sneak" Marquardt.

Action was dominant again in the second period, on a triple, E. Lester scored on assists from Stulp and W. Lester, netting Gleichen their lone tally.

In the third period and in the overtime the locals were trying out their opponents, forcing the play close to the Gleichen fort. Basasso missed a good scoring chance when Gleichen was short two men. Don Maurer, the goal made two spectacular saves, warding off what looked like sure goals. Putting on the pressure, Basasso made a successful bid for a win, sending a three man rush of Lorne Smith, Johnny Clarke and Ellis Angell down the ice, resulting in a scramble in front of the Gleichen net. Angell banged it in for the last corner of the game.

Gleichen: Goal, Bogate; Defence: Stulp, W. Lester, E. Lester; Forwards: B. Desjardis, Clifford, Hall, W. DeJardis.

Basasso versus Strathmore

In a heated match on Wednesday night the "Red Devils" lost a tough game to Strathmore. The local team started off in the style, netting two scores on a pass from Rusty Basassar and "Sneak" Marquardt.

Play commenced in a desultory fashion in the second, involving up

GEM

GEM, Jan. 28.—Social activities were again renewed in the colony when the mercury thawed out so that people could verify their beliefs that they could venture out without freezing.

At a card party held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Selfridge on Saturday night, Mrs. D. Douglas and R. Williamson won first prizes. Ladies' consolation went to Mrs. Ted Wade. Bad luck must be dogging Ted's footsteps for he took men's consolation for the second time in succession. But watch out next time, for with the third, and he can be expected to bring home the first prize. With the first sign of mild weather the energetic skating enthusiasts resumed work on the rink. We hope that they get enough skating to compensate them for their work, but nevertheless we have a secret yearning for sunny days and open roads.

Mrs. A. P. Miller entertained as Sunday dinner guests Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Selfridge and family.

We feel that a vote of thanks is due those men who worked so industriously to clear the road between Waltemita's and Hyvie's, making it passable for cars.

A number of Gemites motored to Brooks on Tuesday to attend a meeting concerning the "New Deal" proposed by the C.P.R. Among those who attended were J. P. Royer, A. P. Miller, E. B. Selfridge, D. Douglas, R. Williamson and D. Jansen.

Miss M. Chamberlin, Robert and Paul, Miss G. Forth, Miss C. Hansen, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Selfridge, Max Gamble and family were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Pollock.

A carload of coal was shipped into Glen on Wednesday, and a carload of hay and one of sheep were shipped out.

THE WEEK AT OTTAWA

By Dr. F. W. Gershaw, M. P.

The Speech from the Throne promised many things that appealed to all members of the House. A motion was made that the address be presented to the House and the speaker spoke for his speech. It is likely that all parties will agree to this although, usually, a long debate takes place before the speaker's first speech. The success of the Liberals had been in the by-elections, reviewed the record of his party regarding Old Age Pensions and other social legislation since he published his book on Industry and Humanity, eighteen years ago. He said he would not oppose any of these reforms and measures and offered to do all he could to hurry proceedings and limit talk so that these bills dealing with Unemployment, insurance, pensions and etc. could be passed as soon as possible. Mr. Bennett had promised over the radio could pass the House and the Senate at once. He hoped there would be no delay on account of constitutional difficulties.

Mr. Bennett replied at length. He explained that the programme was not for vote getting but was the fact that the speaker had said that a reciprocity treaty was being arranged with the U.S.A. and indicated that the details would be made known in a very short time. The people of the West will hope to see the American duty removed on our cattle going to the states. He strongly defended the Empire Agreement, stating that they had saved Canada. He also seemed to indicate that there would be no general election until next fall although, of course, no definite announcement was made.

Several other members spoke in favor of making changes in the monetary system. The speaker said that there is in evidence so far at least a spirit of good will and a desire by all to get behind any sincere effort to reform the Capitalistic system.

On Thursday the debate on the address ended and health problems occupied the time of the members. There is a strong feeling that a very best medical care should be available for every person in Canada.

It was pointed out that the very best and the very poor could now get this but that the great middle class did not wish to accept this as charity and could not pay the high fees for the medical medicine is certainly coming soon.

The social credit meeting in the schoolhouse last Saturday evening was well attended.

Mrs. Henry Dole, G. Mackay and Irvin Warner were callers in the Colony last Sunday.

R. Norton and A. Gallup motored to Calgary last Friday and returned on Sunday evening.

Owen Lake, of Duesch, accompanied by Roy Eastman, took a truckload of logs to Calgary Wednesday.

Three carloads of baby food are being shipped from here by Mr. Nelson to his ranch north of Alton.

Various Organizations Get Behind Effort to Hold Festival for Basasso and District Festival

Students of Basasso and district schools are assured of a Dramatic and Music Festival following the organization of the Basasso Music and Dramatic Association here last Friday.

The big entertainment will be held here on Friday, April 12, in three different buildings not decided upon yet.

When school inspectors were requested last year, Basasso school organized last year, Basasso school was placed in the Medicine Hat Inspectorate, Strathmore in the Calgary Inspectorate, and Gleichen in the Drumheller. Strathmore schools are holding their own music and the Gleichen schools are attending that in Drumheller. Thus Basasso students have to travel to Medicine Hat or Strathmore, a long trip to arrange for in either case.

Inspector H. C. Sweet, while in Basasso, introduced the idea of staging a local festival. Last Friday afternoon he called a meeting in the schoolhouse of representatives of the Board of Trade, the Women's Institute, the Town Council, the School Board and the teachers. The Basasso Music and Dramatic Association was formed with W. K. Webb president, H. W. Hansen, first vice-president, Miss V. Macdonald, second vice-president, and L. N. Whitehorn secretary.

On Monday evening a meeting of the organization was held in the court house. There it was decided to include all schools in the southeast portion of the Drumheller Inspectorate and all in the western division of the Medicine Hat Inspectorate. This includes Husar, Cluny, Makepeace, Geo. Duesch, Rosemary, Patricia, Cooness, Millicent, Basasso, etc. Programs will be distributed to these schools and any others in the district as soon as printed.

The program will include solo work, elocution, action songs, dramatization and chorus work for country schools. Two classes of schools will compete: (1) those consisting of one room and (2) those of more than one room.

Winners of first, second and third prizes will receive printed certificates and if the school is in the district, will receive, trophies will be awarded at future festivals.

Financial Position Of Town Improves

The financial statement of the Town of Basasso, published last week reveals that the town is in a better position, financially, than at the end of 1932.

The collections were up $200; general receipts, fines and licenses increased $35, and expenditures were decreased by $135.

Therefore the town has bettered its financial position by approximately $1,000.

THE GREAT WEALTH DESTROYER

Looking over the bill of costs of the last war, we prophecy wars in the future will be classified as "bad risks" in the financial world. Maybe the wealthy nations and wealthy men will refuse to underwrite wars in future. It won't pay!

And look at the loss of wealth! Three hundred and fifty-eight million dollars the Great War cost—twenty thousand dollars for every home on five acres of Christ! The war cost nine million dollars an hour to wage.

Wars won't continue. No nation can afford them. The financial cost of this last big war will be saddled principally on the United States because it is the only country which can pay. But they will never pay for another war. One lesson will be enough.

The money spent on the last war would have paid for a $2500 house furnished with $1250 of furniture, on five acres of land for every family in Great Britain, the United States, France, Germany, Belgium, Russia, Australia and Canada.

In addition, a hospital, school and university, including the salaries of teachers, nurses and doctors, could have been provided for each group of 50,000 families.

When the peoples of the world get to know these costs, there won't be any more great wars; even if some nations can raise the money to start one.

Wars cost humanity too dearly.

BUILD SLOWER AND SURE

Seeing that Premier Bennett and Hon. W. L. MacKenzie King are of similar minds on the basic fact that a progressive policy and a decided change is needed in Canada, the Dominion can make up its mind that it is in for some kind of new deal.

Now there are many and varied kinds of "new deals" floating around the world, but the kind of a deal the people of Canada would like to see is on that would give a fairer opportunity for the people.

We should pause in our haste to build up great industries and vast cities. We should go a little slower in plans for the rapid settling up of vast areas. We should think more about the people we have and their prospects rather than the people we might bring in to this country.

Better a Canada with slow growth than a top-heavy national structure which may be shaken by every tornado that sweeps the world.

Better a national life of fair prosperity than intermittent periods of great wealth for a few and great poverty for the many. Better a nation built on the sure foundation of agriculture than one forced up artificially on the erection of uneconomic industrial islands.

We need more common sense and less vainglorious ideas in this Dominion of Canada.

ALBERTA'S WINTER CLIMATE

The departing month of January will carry into the record a period of low temperature in Alberta that has not been equaled for many years. Even the "chinook belt," which can usually look for a mild wind to bring relief when the rest of the prairies are victims of King Frost, had an unusually long run of severe cold weather.

When finally the magic arc of clouds, denoting the prospect of a chinook, did appear in the western heavens, the war householder, overworked with stoking duties, sighed in relief. A breathing spell was in sight.

The chinook winds are unpopular in the summer. They do irreparable harm to growing crops. But in winter time their mild presence is a godsend. They shoot the temperature up with remarkable rapidity and melt the snow drifts like the rays of the summer sun.

Southern Alberta people are quite proud of their Chinook breezes in winter time. They provide the southern portion of the province with a winter climate unexcelled on the prairies, at least. We even think our Alberta winter climate is a big improvement on that of eastern Canada, and sometimes rivals of far-famed California.

"THE HASTE TO BE RICH"—100 YEARS AGO

"It is a gloomy moment in history. Not for many years—not in the lifetime of most men who read this paper—has there been so much grave and deep apprehension; never has the future seemed so incalculable as at this time. In our own country there is a universal commercial prostration and panic, and thousands of our poorest fellow-citizens are turned out against the approaching winter without employment and without the prospect of it. In France the political cauldron is seething and bubbling with uncertainty; Russia hangs as usual like a cloud, dark and silent upon the horizon of Europe, while all the energies, resources, and influences of the British Empire are sorely tried, and are yet to be tried more sorely in coping with the vast and deadly Indian insurrection, and with its disturbed relations in China.

"It is a serious moment, and no man can feel an indifference—which, happily, no man pretends to feel—in the issue of events.

"Of our own troubles no man can see the end. They are, fortunately, as yet mainly commercial; and if we are to lose money, and by painful means, every man must be taught wisdom—the wisdom of honor, of faith, of sympathy, and of charity—no man need seriously to despair. And yet the very haste to be rich, which is the occasion of this widespread calamity, has also tended to destroy the forces with which we are to resist and subdue the calamity."

The above was published in Harper's Weekly on Saturday, October 10, 1857.

GOVERNMENT DEBT PROBLEMS

The mayors of Western cities would to see interest rates on issued bonds cut down. The provincial governments would be relieved if they did not have to provide so much money annually for interest payments. The federal government would be exceedingly cheerful over a reduction in the rates of interest it has to pay on the public debt.

Debtors have like poison to pay interest. The continual drag of repaying principal together with all-consuming interest is what doubles the rub. Even this is not too bad when prices are at a fair level but when there has been a retrogression of almost all prices repayment is doubly difficult. "John Smith," in his great work, "The Wealth of Nations," written 160 years ago, recounts similar attitudes. He says: "When national debts have once been accumulated to a certain degree, there is scarce an instance of them being fairly and completely repaid. The illustration of a nation being brought about by bankruptcy; sometimes by an avowed one, but always by a real one, though frequently by a pretended payment."

The raising of the denomination of the coin has been the most frequent expedient by which a real public bankruptcy has been disguised under the appearance of a pretended payment."

When you get out of bed these cold mornings and find the first low, expect that you have gas or keratine around.

Just a little while ago, a man living nearby took a two gallon can of the future commodity to start the kitchen stove.

The bottom of the container blew into his abdomen, and he died a week later, after suffering dreadful agony. He left a wife to mourn his departure, and her high strength and courage under very trying circumstances merited a better fate.

With her naked hands she subdued the flames on her husband's carcass. Then wrapping him in a blanket, this brave little lady carried the heavy man to the car some distance away, and supporting the fainting form with one arm, drove to the town which lay five miles away.

In the course of a sermon delivered recently, the head of a religious body made a vicious and unwarranted attack on Robert Burns. With the event, Europe will relax from the strain that has been laid upon it, and the prospects of peace and disarmament are now brighter than for many years. And while the League of Nations may justly claim a considerable amount of credit, it should not be forgotten that British statesmen give official play to a splendid part throughout the proceedings, and it is pleasant to note that both Germans and French acknowledge this in a grateful fashion.

All through the pages of history we find little incidents that had profound effects on the lives of men and nations.

At the end of the Battle of Dresden, Napoleon ate a green pea which brought him so much distress that he was unable to direct a vigorous pursuit of the beaten army.

An old friend, a banker by profession, told us this one: A farmer went to a branch of a well-known bank for a loan of $2000.

"Nothing doing," was the answer. But when the farming man persisted, the manager finally said: "Look here, I've got a glass eye, and if you can tell which one it is, the loan is yours."

Right off the bat the farmer picked the winner.

Then as he was filling the note, the banker looked up and said, "How come that you picked it so quick?"

"Oh," replied the other, "it wasn't nearly so cold looking as the good one."

TO SKATE
OR NOT TO SKATE

(By A. H. d'EOVILLE)

The following is an amusing extract from A. H. d'EOVILLE's amusing book, "Sto. Pat," published by Messrs. Jarrolds Publishers, Ltd., London, England.

Skating is the art of gracefully or disgracefully slipping over a piece of frozen water on two pieces of steel.

In order to thoroughly enjoy skating the water must be frozen. Liquid water can, of course, be used, but the result is not nearly so good as skating on ice.

The novice should always begin by putting on his skates. Sliding about in hobnail boots is not recommended, at any rate, in daylight.

Several winters will have to be devoted to the art of standing up, as opposed to the art of sitting down.

Twenty-five years should be sufficient for the man or woman of average intelligence to acquire some skill in this direction, after which he or she may turn his or her attention to more serious practice by moving forward in a standing position.

It is a very good idea to place a number of cushions at one end of the rink and then to struggle toward them from the other end, taking care not to fall before reaching them.

The ordinary man or woman can generally master this science in from twenty to thirty years, after which comes the most important matter of the edges.

There are roughly two kinds of edges. The outside (or limit) and the inside.

The beginner who is beginning to learn to skate at the rink should begin, that is, with the inside edge.

The correct way of executing the inside edge is to get as near to the inside edge of the rink as possible and to walk around slowly, being careful to change the direction at each corner.

When a perfect foot ought to be able to learn this in fifty years.

We now come to the outside edge. This is admittedly much more difficult, for the very good reason that the outside edge of the rink has no ice on it at all.

The best method, therefore, of acquiring this difficult feat is to remove the skates and walk round, replacing them when the point of departure, usually marked with a pin, is reached.

Having thoroughly mastered the edges, the beginner is able to take up the real business of skating—namely, figure skating.

I cannot, in the space at my disposal, describe every figure known to the skater. I shall, therefore, content myself with the outlining of two most important figures, known as the "2" and the "3."

Let us commence with the "2." The figure "2" has been chosen because it comes exactly half way between 2 and 4.

There are many ways of doing this figure, but by far the best, to my mind, is to take a piece of chalk and mark out a "2" on the ice.

Having drawn the "2" to your liking, walk around it slowly, beginning at the top of the first stroke, at the base, or commencing at the base and terminating at the top.

The "3" being twice as big as the "2" is, of course, twice as difficult.

To accomplish this figure, take a piece of ordinary green chalk. Green is chosen in preference to blue owing to its greenness.

Carefully mark a figure "3" on the ice. Now stick an ordinary Union Jack in the ice mark the point of departure, and, keeping the eye on the flag, crawl round on all fours, never leaving the chalk mark until the Union Jack is once more safely reached.

Such figures as grapevine, pines, mohawks, tomahawks and pickaxes will be learnt quite readily when those described above have been thoroughly mastered.—Hans Craig & Canyon.

A Mysterious Being

A political meeting was in progress in a British military town, and the audience was growing hourly tired of a very prosy speaker. At last he worked himself up to his climax.
"And I say to you, in conclusion, that if you do not accept internationalism now, of your own free will, the time is coming when, willy nilly, you will have to accept it."
He sat down, and his chairman rose. "Are there any questions, please?" he asked.

There was a long silence. Then a young man from the back of the hall: "Who is this Willy Nilly, anyway?"

We have always noticed that the man who is always bragging about his family tree seldom breaks any planning records himself.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

Thursday, JANUARY 29, 1920
Bassano News

A. A. Macgregor was a visitor to Edmonton last week on business connected with the Agricultural Society.

W. J. Matheson, who has recently been to Winnipeg to consult a nerve specialist, returned on Sunday and informs us that it was a business trip. There's nothing wrong with that boy's nerve after all.

Last week we innocently invited
Dave Osler not only with the honor of matrimony, but also with the further glory of fatherhood, when the congratulations should have been extended to Mr. and Mrs. W. Osler.

Mr. and Mrs. Arison and family, who have been wintering at the coast,
returned to Bassano on Saturday.
Norman says he saw enough rain at Vancouver to convince him that there is still enough left in the world for another bumper crop.

Almost without exception the farmers returning from the recent U.F.A. convention at Calgary report that it was a great and profitable convention from which big results are expected. Farmer politicians are particularly well pleased, and there is no doubt that if Provincial and Dominion elections are postponed much longer the farmers will have organized sufficiently to overwhelm the old parties.

The thermometer registered the lowest temperature of the winter last Friday--48 below zero.

Architect Hay informs us that the new hospital extension is a splendidly built structure and a credit to the contractors. A few days moderate weather will see the job completed.

Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Robinson, who have been visiting in the States for the past few weeks, returned on Sunday--just missing by the merest fluke being on the train which was telegraphed at North Bay.

Makepeace News
Mr. and Mrs. Hotewich are both suffering from an attack of "flu".

SHADES OF NEW YEARS

Recently I had twelve bottles of home-distilled whiskey in my cellar and my wife made me empty the contents of each and every bottle down the sink. I proceeded to do as my wife desired and withdrew the cork from the first bottle and poured the contents down the sink with the exception of one glass, which I drank.
I then withdrew the cork from the second bottle and did likewise with the exception of one glass, which I drank.

I extracted the cork from the third bottle and emptied the good old booze down the sink except a glass which I devoured.

I pulled the cork from the fourth bottle and poured the bottle down the sink which I drank some.

I pulled the bottle from the cork of the next and drank one sink of it and threw the rest down the glass.

I pulled the sink out of the next cork and poured the bottle down my neck.

I pulled the next bottle out of my throat, poured the cork down the glass except for one sink which I drank.

I pulled the next cork from my throat and poured the sink down the bottle and drank the cork.

Well, I had them all emptied, and I steadied the house with one hand while I counted the bottles, which were 24, so I counted them again when the house came around and I had 74 and as the house came round I counted them and finally I had all half all about what I did, and Oh!
Boy! I've got the widest little neck in the world!—Dynamite.

I couldn't get the brush in the bottles, so I turned the house inside out, and washed and wiped them all, and went upstairs and told my other half all about what I did, and Oh!
Boy! I've got the widest little neck in the world!—Dynamite.

While visiting the home of Mr. Bow-wick's parents at Opportunity, Wash.
N. E. Bray has shipped in a car of horses from Calgary, to help him in raising that 166 crop this year. Edney rather favors this brand of tractor.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Martin and daughter Mildred have returned from a two month's visit with relatives in Spokane.

THE GRAINBUYER

by T. Longbottom

He's a very foggy guy with a keen discerning eye.
The lad who condescends to buy our grain;

And with him we ever beef, and suggest that he's a thief.
Or tell him very saddy that we'll never come again;

For between the separator and the blower elevator
There's a fearful lot of kernels go-astray;

But he only heaves a sigh as we mutter, grunt or cry, While he diddles with the weighbeam in a much too cautious way.

When the wheat is kinda tough, he will run his ancient bluff
An' tell us it could never dry in hall.
If he sees a single weed in a load
that's fit for seed,

The dockage will be sure to make us yell;
Then he writes the fingers down (sure the shrinkage makes us frown)

Oh the way he ends the deal is quite a scream,
For when all is said and done we go homeward on the run.

Rejoicing that the belliger gave us back the tank an' team.

Of course we hunt in batches for his baccy an' his matches,
Or bum him for some nails to fix
a bin;

An' we dirty all his floor, bang an'
wreck his office door, While he views the situation with a grin.

An' in fine or stormy weather we all sit an' drink together,
As friendly as the blackbirds over there.

An' when sorrow is our lot, he is Johnny on the spot,

NOTICE

to residents of the BASSANO MUNICIPAL HOSPITAL DISTRICT

In consequence of an amendment to the Municipal Hospitals Act and new rulings by the Hospital Board, the following rules will apply from January 1st, 1935:

1. Any ratepayer whose tax for Hospital purposes does not amount to six dollars will be required to pay the difference between such tax and the sum of six dollars to the secretary-treasurer before the 15th DAY OF FEBRUARY in each year, failing which he will not be entitled to the dollar per day rate for the entire year.
2. Any resident non-ratepayer desiring the privilege of the ratepayer's dollar per day rate must pay the sum of six dollars to the secretary-treasurer before the 15th DAY OF FEBRUARY in each year.
3. Any limited company or partnership which maintains a business within the Hospital District may appoint, in writing, its duly authorized representative to receive the ratepayer's privilege providing its tax for Hospital purposes amounts to the sum of six dollars or makes up such tax to the sum of six dollars to the secretary-treasurer before the 15th DAY OF FEBRUARY in each year.
4. Any person moving into the Hospital District within any calendar year may, upon proving three months' residence and upon payment of the fee of six dollars within one month thereafter be entitled to the dollar a day rate for the remainder of that year.
5. Any person claiming admission as a ratepayer must produce his most recent tax notice or his receipt from the secretary-treasurer as aforesaid, for inspection; otherwise the Hospital Board reserves the right of refusing such person the ratepayer's privilege of the dollar a day rate.
6. Any person seeking admission as a patient must be prepared to pay up to a week's services in advance. The Hospital Board reserves the right to refuse admission to any patient failing to comply with this rule.
7. Every resident of the District coming under rules No. 1 and No. 2 must be a CONTINUOUS HOSPITAL SUPPORTER and those omitting to pay the premium in any year or years will not be eligible for the minimum rate until all arrears of premiums have been paid.

By order of the Board.

OPPORTUNITY KNOCKS

The following ad. appearing in a paper in a neighboring town might be worth considering:

"I want a man to work on my farm. I don't give dancing lessons, and I have no piano. I can't serve plank steak three times a day; I do give three square meals a day, and a real bed and fair wages. If any man who knows a cow from a talking machine, can hear an alarm clock and get up at six o'clock wants a job, I will agree not to treat him like one of the family, but a darned sight better."
